

The Barn @ Brynich meeting room rates

The Barn is a great location for meetings, training courses and seminars. A beautifully converted 17th Century building with bags of character and 40 acres of farmland it offers something a bit different from the usual meeting venue. Easily accessible from the A470 & A40 and offering competitive prices it is definitely worth a visit.

All our rates are based on the number of delegates that you have attending. With the exception of breakfast meetings, which can be for as few as 5 people, we have a minimum number of 10 delegates for each booking.
